

Pivotal PDF Tests

April 2nd, 2012 to May 20th, 2012

A Simple Story

As a PivotalPDF user I would like to have my story output to a PDF document so that I can couple them with other project documentation.

- Accepted: May 4th, 2012
- Duration: 1 day
- Size: 1 point

A Multi Paragraph Story

As a PivotalPDF user I would like to have my multi-paragraph stories output in the same layout as they appear in Pivotal Tracker, so that I get what I'm expecting.

- Accepted: May 4th, 2012
- Duration: 1 day
- Size: 1 point

Full Story Document

As a Pivotal PDF user I would like to have my stories output in a document format that shows the details of each story, so that I can archive the information with the deployment details.

- Started: May 17th, 2012
- Anticipate Completion Before: May 20th, 2012
- Size: 1 point

Abbreviated Story Document

As a Pivotal PDF user I would like my stories to be output in an abbreviated format so that I can quickly communicate the status of a project when Pivotal Tracker is not available.

- Scheduled For May 21st Sprint
- Size: 2 points

An Icebox Story

As a PivotalPDF user I would like to have icebox stories associated with my Icebox.
